Kuehne + Nagel named “best international logistics provider in Ukraine” in 2009

Kiev, Ukraine, November 02, 2009 – Kuehne + Nagel has been awarded as the “Best International Logistics Operator in Ukraine” in a recent ranking made by the Ukrainian Logistics Association (ULA) under the umbrella of the European Logistics Association (ELA).

The ranking considered ten categories according to which all companies providing logistics services in Ukraine were compared by the council of ULA experts including consultants, business coaches and representatives of logistics publications. The rating was compiled on the basis of the following criteria: comprehensiveness and quality of services, the companies' geographical network work and experience in the market, competitive advantages and reputation, qualification of personnel and level of technological equipment.

The results of the ranking were announced on October 9th 2009 in Kiev at the 3rd International Logistics Congress. Diplomas were presented to the winners in each category by Alfonz Antoni, President of the European Logistics Association, and Maria Grigorak, President of the Ukrainian Logistics Association.

Peter Metelsky, Sales & Marketing Director of Kuehne + Nagel Ukraine, emphasized: “During the years of operation in Ukraine, our Company has earned the trust of more than a thousand customers and hundreds of employees as a reliable business partner and responsible employer. This award once again proves that Kuehne + Nagel holds a strong position among the biggest 3PL-operators in the Ukraine. We thank all our customers and partners for their continued trust and long-term cooperation. Our Company consistently guarantees a high quality level of customer service and reliable cooperation with all our partners.”

About Ukrainian Logistics Association (ULA)

ULA was established in 2005 in Kiev, Ukraine, and since June 2009 is a full member of the European Logistics Association. The mission of the project Logistics Award Ukraine – 2009 is to give complete and objective information to the participants in the Ukrainian and foreign logistics services markets about the variety and quality offered by Ukrainian logistics companies.
