

Certificates and attestations

ISO, OHSAS, TAPA, C-TPAT, AEO, SQAS, GXP, Cargo 2000, EN 9100

Certificate / Attestation	Issued by	Purpose
ISO 9001 Certificate <sup>1</sup>	BVC <sup>2</sup>	To ensure optimum levels of process, data and service quality
OHSAS 18001 Certificate <sup>3</sup>	BVC	To minimize risks to employees' safety and health
ISO 14001 Certificate	BVC	To protect the environment and to increase sustainability
TAPA Certificate <sup>4</sup>	BVC	To ensure the utmost level of security in the whole supply chain
C-TPAT Certificate <sup>5</sup>	U.S. Customs	To ensure the utmost level of security in the whole supply chain
AEO Certificate <sup>6</sup>	World Customs	To further increase the security level in the whole supply chain
SQAS Attestation <sup>7</sup>	BVC	To further improve the handling of all chemicals including dangerous goods
GXP Food <sup>8</sup> Certificate	BVC	To fulfil the requirements of the International Food Standard
GXP Pharma / Healthcare Certif. <sup>9</sup>	BVC	To meet the Standards set by the World Health Organization
EN 9100 Certificate <sup>10</sup>	BVC	To meet the Standards valid for the Aerospace / Aviation industry
Cargo 2000 <sup>11</sup> Phase 2 Certificate	Cargo 2000	To further improve quality within air logistics in the door-to-door process

- 1 ISO: International Standardisation Organisation
- 2 BVC: Bureau Veritas Certification (external certification body)
- 3 OHSAS: Occupational Health and Safety Assessment System
- 4 TAPA: Transported Asset Protection Association, initiated by the Hightech industry
- 5 C-TPAT: Customs-Trade Partnership Against Terrorism, initiated by the U.S. Customs
- 6 AEO: Authorized Economic Operator, initiated by the World Customs Organization
- 7 SQAS: Safety and Quality Assessment System, initiated by the Chemical industry
- 8 GXP Food: Good Storage / Distribution Practice in the Food industry
- 9 GXP Pharma / Healthcare: GDP based on the World Health Organization (WHO)
- 10 EN 9100: European Standard for the Aerospace / Aviation industry
- 11 Cargo 2000: An IATA Interest Group consisting of airlines, handling agents and freight forwarders

