

Kuehne + Nagel receives prestigious award from Rolls-Royce

At the German Logistics Congress in Berlin, Rolls-Royce conferred the title of "Supplier of the Year 2010" on its logistics partner Kuehne + Nagel.

The very close cooperation between Kuehne + Nagel and Rolls-Royce dates from 2004. Dedicated Kuehne + Nagel global account teams operate in-house within Rolls-Royce in the UK, Scandinavia, Germany, the U.S. and Singapore, managing air, sea, road and contract logistics services.

Rolls-Royce acknowledged this valuable partnership by naming Kuehne + Nagel its "Supplier of the Year 2010". Presenting the award, Pernille Boisen, Chief Procurement Officer, Rolls-Royce, commented: "The Rolls-Royce-Supplier of the Year awards recognise the contribution and continuous commitment of strategic partners and suppliers in support of the Rolls-Royce supply chain strategy and, ultimately, the performance of our product range."

The 28th German Logistics Congress in Berlin was a fitting venue for the presentation ceremony. The award was proudly received by Karl Gernandt, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Kuehne + Nagel International AG, and Tim Scharwath, member of the Board of Management with responsibility for airfreight logistics and sales.
